

653, female, } Tom Harbour.
654, young, }

“Eyes orange ; stomach had mussels.”

“Eyes of young were brown, bill of adult red, feet flesh-coloured ; bill of young brown.”

661, female, Tom Harbour.

720, male, Elizabeth Island.

“Eyes yellow, feet flesh, bill red, eyelids red ; stomachs had mussels.”

38. HÆMATOPUS ATER (Vieill.) ; Scl. et Salv. Nomencl. p. 143.

721, female, Elizabeth Island.

“Eyes yellow, feet flesh, bill red, eyelids red ; stomach had mussels.”

39. EUDROMIAS MODESTA (Licht.) ; Scl. et Salv. Nomencl. p. 143.

646, female, Gray Harbour.

“Eyes brown ; stomach had insects.”

660, female, Tom Harbour.

“Eyes black ; stomach had insects.”

673, male, Porto Bueno.

“Eyes brown ; stomach had seeds and sand.”

690, male, Port Fanurie.

“Eyes brown ; stomach had sand.”

728, male, Falkland Islands.

“Eyes brown ; stomach had sandy particles &c.”

40. GALLINAGO PARAGUAIÆ (Vieill.) ; Scl. et Salv. Nomencl. p. 144.

671, 672, females, Porto Bueno.

“Eyes brown, feet bluish ; in No. 672 the feet are yellowish.”

729, male, } Falkland Islands.
730, female, }

“Eyes brown ; stomachs had worms &c.”

41. TRINGA FUSCICOLLIS (Vieill.) ; Scl. et Salv. Nomencl. p. 145.

733, male, Falkland Islands.

“Eyes brown ; stomach had sand &c.”

5. Descriptions of three new Species of Birds from Ecuador.

By P. L. SCLATER, M.A., Ph. D., F.R.S., and OSBERT SALVIN, M.A., F.R.S.

[Received April. 11, 1878.]

(Plates XXVII. & XXVIII.)

Mr. C. Buckley, during his recent second expedition into the eastern valleys of the Andes of Quito, has obtained a series of birds

Plates, int.

3

NEOMORPHUS RADIALATUS

J. Smith del.

